

I am a senior citizen, vehemently opposed to greater media consolidation. I heartfully urge you to vote to retain the current ownership rules. Do not contribute to even more erosion of our right to information and, consequently, our democratic republic.